

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY,

By GEORGE WARREN, Hickman, Ky.

OFFICE—Hickman Building, Clinton St.

GEORGE WARREN, EDITOR.

Price of Subscription, $2.

A CHILD'S MOOD.

(At length the day.)

"I want that wind took yesterday.

I had no shorn lamb; it was the best that grew.

I want my last night's kiss."

I want that butterfly with spotted wings.

Last night between the sunset and the dew.

It came from fairy-land.

I would have stayed, I guess, it wavered so.

When I went away, I left it to you.

They only sing and go.

That star, that always came before the moon.

Dropped down and lay just in front.

I laid it where I saw it and found

A world of yellow light.

I want the day to go to the dark.

It left me nothing to do.

The sun took yesterday.

Jules C. Marsh, in Wide Awake.

MISSION OR NO MISSION?

"What is the use of such ugly things, do you think, Ben?" "And, Fanny Brown, you know, she has such a draw back—tiny little foot and from a large spotted tail that she had nearly sprung up."

"Why, no use, of course," said Ben, "only she is very silly girl, and they are needed for the prettiest girls, and I can't see how they can be used, for she is small enough to startle the man in the moon; if they only see their own shadow; so they are of no use for anything."

"Yes, Ben, Ben, mother says every thing has a mission; and this foal is a thing, so it must have one."

"O, tch! Mother is a mighty smart and good woman, but she says herself she doesn't know everything; and it's my opinion that this is her first point," as Sophie James would say, she is mistaken. She is crazy on the subject of missions."

"Well, Ben, mother says every thing has a mission; and this foal is a thing, so it must have one."

"O, tch! Mother is a mighty smart and good woman, but she says herself she doesn't know everything; and it's my opinion that this is her first point," as Sophie James would say, she is mistaken. She is crazy on the subject of missions."

"Well, Ben, Ben, mother says every thing has a mission; and this foal is a

thing, so it must have one."

"I do, if Ben doesn't. And I am one of them; a great, awkward creature that has never accomplished anything but to fill up and make a space that one else would have adorned. I guess Ben only means that the foal is not good enough to startle the man in the moon," And a bitter expression, sad and to see on so young a face, settled in the dark eyes and around the thin lips of the eldest sister. Sue, as sitting by a window, a mass of long green leaves of a languid bush, she had been listening to the children's prattle.

Poor Sue! Of a naturally sensitive and rather melancholy disposition, she had, unfortunately, inherited a gloomy hereditary streak of character that in a happy state of childhood, beauty, she was the only one in one. And her mirror seemed to her to reflect the statement; for the great black eyes, straight, raven-black hair, dark complexion, thin lips, were a striking contrast to those of her sisters, with their hair, that daily smoothed her down.

Her disposition, too, was unique, and unlike all by whom she was surrounded. She had lived an almost solitary life in a large family of brothers and sisters. The brotherhood in age to her self had died in infancy, and the twins, Nellie and Delle, four years younger—two gay, bright creatures, as much alike in nature as in name and age—had died in infancy, too, leaving her the only infant of the family.

The brotherhood in age to her self had died in infancy, and the twins, Nellie and Delle, four years younger—two gay, bright creatures, as much alike in nature as in name and age—had died in infancy, too, leaving her the only infant of the family.

She had, however, a brotherhood in age to her self, she had a companionship in books, whose dead old authors never addressed or forgot themselves; in fact, a self-appointed committee, for the purpose, they criticised and discussed the merits and demerits of the Brown family as freely as if they themselves had been born to it; and, though she herself had no companion, she was surrounded by a host of friends, telling her all about her self and all by which she was surrounded. Turning with restless fingers the leaves of her favorite poet, Longfellow, the "Psalm of Life," her eye, with its "dawn of life," was at rest again.

"We make our lives like us, and we have no right to怨.

Footnote on the words of time."

"I don't believe it! There is no sublime to be made of my life, and I will never let you make it!"

She had, however, a brotherhood in age to her self, she had a companionship in books, whose dead old authors never addressed or forgot themselves; in fact, a self-appointed committee, for the purpose, they criticised and discussed the merits and demerits of the Brown family as freely as if they themselves had been born to it; and, though she herself had no companion, she was surrounded by a host of friends, telling her all about her self and all by which she was surrounded. Turning with restless fingers the leaves of her favorite poet, Longfellow, the "Psalm of Life," her eye, with its "dawn of life," was at rest again.

"No, mother, I won't say that,

you know, I have a right to怨.

Footnote on the words of time."

"I wonder if those butterflies will make any footprints on the sands of time?"

"Old Ben," she writes to the New York Times, gives a reason why he is not married, and that is, he is not bright enough to find a wife.

"Well, it's better to be a butterfly than a moth, I heard him say, and take a mission, too, know mission message, and we will be well off."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

"Well, Fannie, nothing to do but to

marry him, and he will be the con-

version of the coming century."

Local Items.

Miss Eddie Hoaglan, left Saturday to attend school at Russellville, Ky.

Mrs Roy Niblett is visiting relatives at Union City.

There is a bountiful supply of hogs in Central Kentucky.

The Mayfield Fair begins October 10th.

Mrs. C. A. Holcombe and Miss Minnie Hoaglan, are visiting Paducah, this week.

Miss Julia Park, of Chattanooga, Tenn., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Powell.

If you want a nice dress, something new and stylish, go to

ALEXANDER & MAXWELL.

Sam Kirkpatrick, jr., left Wednes day, to take in the Cincinnati exposition.

Mr. V. A. McCutchen, of Paducah was thrown from a buggy, Sunday, and had a rib broken and suffered other injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Boyd, of Nashville, Tenn., are visiting relatives at the Laclede.

The Columbus Beacon will suspend October 1. The office will be removed to Jackson, Tenn., where the proprietors of the Beacon will publish a daily paper.

Walter Kingman, John Myers, and James Dadds, left Tuesday morning for Lexington, to attend the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

Every pump warranted to be effective and not to taste or spoil the water.

RICH & LOWE PUMP CO.

Hickman, Ky.

Venner's prediction made last April was that there would be hot weather about the middle of September, and cold weather about the first of October.

The Troy convention nominated Hon. B. B. Watkins, of Dyer, for Senator, and K. M. Darnell, of Lake, for Speaker.

If you want a protector against the fire devil, get one of those Force Pumps of the

RICH & LOWE WOOD PUMP CO.,

Hickman, Ky.

The Union City Fair commences next Tuesday, Oct. 3rd, and continues 8 days. Extensive preparations are being made by the management to have the exhibition this year the grandest in the history of the Association.

The Hickman Circuit Court sentenced two colored men to the penitentiary, one for grand larceny and the other for horse stealing. The trial of young Skaggs, charged with the murder of Bud Hays, resulted in a hung jury.

HOP AT UNION CITY.—Prof. Searey gives a general Hop at Union City, at the Court House, during the Fair, with full string band and programme. Ladies and gentlemen of Hickman invited to attend on Oct. 3rd, at 8 P.M.

We will not be undersold, the Old Reliable.

PLAUT BRO'S. & Co.

Brown Jones' Hair Dresser.

—Some of the families in Hickman are in difficulties over the Fancy New Process Flour of Powell & Bro. This notice is not an advertisement, but is given at the instance of citizens. Inquire for their best brand. Don't buy the 2nd or 3rd grade, expecting this recommendation to apply to them, but buy their first grade.

HICKMAN seems to have waked up to the existence of a base-faced fraud in her midst. The "Order of Mutual Friends" turns out to be, it is said, an organization for the purpose of supporting a set of officers in comparative idleness. So says the Paducah correspondent of the Courier Journal.

Why are they always busy at the Square Deal? Because polite clerks and low prices will attract the crowd. If you want any winter goods of any description, it will pay to call to call. No trouble to show goods.

THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND.—With the cry of "hard times" we hunt for the place where the best goods can be bought for the least money. A visit to the "Square Deal" will convince the most skeptical. A dollar saved is a dollar made.

On last Thursday night expert burglars entered the grocery house of Tyler & Murphy, Fulton, and succeeded in blowing the door of their safe off, but failed to enter the vault. The same night the parties entered the store house of Mr. Bolinger and robbed it of some pistols and other things. The work in Tyler & Murphy's showed the hand of expert cracksmen. No clue to the robbers. The citizens of Fulton offer a reward of about $500 for their capture.

They are selling more goods than any house in town," is the general talk of the street. In fact the Square Deal takes the cake.

Self's circus was wrecked near Lancaster, Ky., Monday last, and three men killed, and a number wounded. A boy who was stealing a ride was one of the killed. The cage containing the tiger was broken and no one had the courage to go near him. Finally the tiger of his own motion walked into his own cage, when the door was closed on him.

The new Hickman, Cairo and Tipperary packet, now being built at New Albany, Indiana, has been named the H. A. Tyler. This is a deserved compliment to one who has contributed the fruits of a successful business life to the building up of the business interest of Hickman and the surrounding country, and should be accepted as a proper compliment to this community. The boat will be completed by the 25th of October, and enter the Hickman trade by the 1st of November.

Capt. W. J. Turner's new boat was launched at New Albany, last Saturday. When Capt. Barhamore gave the word "make ready" Miss Helen Doherty, the handsome and accomplished daughter of Mr. M. Doherty, took her position at the bow of the boat, and as she gazed into the water, she broke the traditional bottle of wine over the bow. The new packet is 102 feet long, 35 feet beam, 5 feet hold, and has a full size cabin, two engines and two boilers.

The storm which last week swept through the State of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, swept away factories, bridges, dams, &c., and was altogether the most destructive as to property for many years.

Don't You Forget It.—Old Buck is smashing high prices, and if you want first class goods, at the very lowest cost, go and examine goods and prices.

Grover Cleveland is the Democratic nominee for Governor of New York.

The sufferings from yellow fever at Pensacola, Florida, and points in Texas, have been frightful. The terrible plague is on the decrease.

Robbers entered the house of Mr. S. Star, one of our most worthy German farmers, who lives some 4½ miles from Hickman, Sunday night last, and robbed the son of $114 in money. The money taken was in a pocket book in a top bureau drawer. Mr. Star, senior, had his own money in another drawer, but the robber failed to find it. On Tuesday night following, the house was again entered, and some members of the family saw a man leaving the house. Mr. Star believes he knows the robber, but no arrest has yet been made.

Don't forget to call and see our new window. We sell close and make a profit.

Very Respectfully,

ALEXANDER & MAXWELL.

Sam Kirkpatrick, jr., left Wednesday day, to take in the Cincinnati exposition.

Mr. V. A. McCutchen, of Paducah was thrown from a buggy, Sunday, and had a rib broken and suffered other injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Boyd, of Nashville, Tenn., are visiting relatives at the Laclede.

The Columbus Beacon will suspend October 1. The office will be removed to Jackson, Tenn., where the proprietors of the Beacon will publish a daily paper.

Walter Kingman, John Myers, and James Dadds, left Tuesday morning for Lexington, to attend the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

Every pump warranted to be effective and not to taste or spoil the water.

RICH & LOWE PUMP CO.

Hickman, Ky.

Venner's prediction made last April was that there would be hot weather about the middle of September, and cold weather about the first of October.

The Troy convention nominated Hon. B. B. Watkins, of Dyer, for Senator, and K. M. Darnell, of Lake, for Speaker.

If you want a protector against the fire devil, get one of those Force Pumps of the

RICH & LOWE WOOD PUMP CO.,

Hickman, Ky.

The Union City Fair commences next Tuesday, Oct. 3rd, and continues 8 days. Extensive preparations are being made by the management to have the exhibition this year the grandest in the history of the Association.

The Hickman Circuit Court sentenced two colored men to the penitentiary, one for grand larceny and the other for horse stealing. The trial of young Skaggs, charged with the murder of Bud Hays, resulted in a hung jury.

HOP AT UNION CITY.—Prof. Searey gives a general Hop at Union City, at the Court House, during the Fair, with full string band and programme. Ladies and gentlemen of Hickman invited to attend on Oct. 3rd, at 8 P.M.

We will not be undersold, the Old Reliable.

PLAUT BRO'S. & Co.

Brown Jones' Hair Dresser.

—Some of the families in Hickman are in difficulties over the Fancy New Process Flour of Powell & Bro. This notice is not an advertisement, but is given at the instance of citizens. Inquire for their best brand. Don't buy the 2nd or 3rd grade, expecting this recommendation to apply to them, but buy their first grade.

HICKMAN seems to have waked up to the existence of a base-faced fraud in her midst. The "Order of Mutual Friends" turns out to be, it is said, an organization for the purpose of supporting a set of officers in comparative idleness. So says the Paducah correspondent of the Courier Journal.

Why are they always busy at the Square Deal? Because polite clerks and low prices will attract the crowd. If you want any winter goods of any description, it will pay to call to call. No trouble to show goods.

THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND.—With the cry of "hard times" we hunt for the place where the best goods can be bought for the least money. A visit to the "Square Deal" will convince the most skeptical. A dollar saved is a dollar made.

On last Thursday night expert burglars entered the grocery house of Tyler & Murphy, Fulton, and succeeded in blowing the door of their safe off, but failed to enter the vault. The same night the parties entered the store house of Mr. Bolinger and robbed it of some pistols and other things. The work in Tyler & Murphy's showed the hand of expert cracksmen. No clue to the robbers. The citizens of Fulton offer a reward of about $500 for their capture.

They are selling more goods than any house in town," is the general talk of the street. In fact the Square Deal takes the cake.

Self's circus was wrecked near Lancaster, Ky., Monday last, and three men killed, and a number wounded. A boy who was stealing a ride was one of the killed. The cage containing the tiger was broken and no one had the courage to go near him. Finally the tiger of his own motion walked into his own cage, when the door was closed on him.

The new Hickman, Cairo and Tipperary packet, now being built at New Albany, Indiana, has been named the H. A. Tyler. This is a deserved compliment to one who has contributed the fruits of a successful business life to the building up of the business interest of Hickman and the surrounding country, and should be accepted as a proper compliment to this community. The boat will be completed by the 25th of October, and enter the Hickman trade by the 1st of November.

Capt. W. J. Turner's new boat was launched at New Albany, last Saturday. When Capt. Barhamore gave the word "make ready" Miss Helen Doherty, the handsome and accomplished daughter of Mr. M. Doherty, took her position at the bow of the boat, and as she gazed into the water, she broke the traditional bottle of wine over the bow. The new packet is 102 feet long, 35 feet beam, 5 feet hold, and has a full size cabin, two engines and two boilers.

The storm which last week swept through the State of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, swept away factories, bridges, dams, &c., and was altogether the most destructive as to property for many years.

Don't You Forget It.—Old Buck is smashing high prices, and if you want first class goods, at the very lowest cost, go and examine goods and prices.

Grover Cleveland is the Democratic nominee for Governor of New York.

The sufferings from yellow fever at Pensacola, Florida, and points in Texas, have been frightful. The terrible plague is on the decrease.

Robbers entered the house of Mr. S. Star, one of our most worthy German farmers, who lives some 4½ miles from Hickman, Sunday night last, and robbed the son of $114 in money. The money taken was in a pocket book in a top bureau drawer. Mr. Star, senior, had his own money in another drawer, but the robber failed to find it. On Tuesday night following, the house was again entered, and some members of the family saw a man leaving the house. Mr. Star believes he knows the robber, but no arrest has yet been made.

Don't forget to call and see our new window. We sell close and make a profit.

Very Respectfully,

ALEXANDER & MAXWELL.

Sam Kirkpatrick, jr., left Wednesday day, to take in the Cincinnati exposition.

Mr. V. A. McCutchen, of Paducah was thrown from a buggy, Sunday, and had a rib broken and suffered other injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Boyd, of Nashville, Tenn., are visiting relatives at the Laclede.

The Columbus Beacon will suspend October 1. The office will be removed to Jackson, Tenn., where the proprietors of the Beacon will publish a daily paper.

Walter Kingman, John Myers, and James Dadds, left Tuesday morning for Lexington, to attend the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

Every pump warranted to be effective and not to taste or spoil the water.

RICH & LOWE PUMP CO.

Hickman, Ky.

Venner's prediction made last April was that there would be hot weather about the middle of September, and cold weather about the first of October.

The Troy convention nominated Hon. B. B. Watkins, of Dyer, for Senator, and K. M. Darnell, of Lake, for Speaker.

If you want a protector against the fire devil, get one of those Force Pumps of the

RICH & LOWE WOOD PUMP CO.,

Hickman, Ky.

The Union City Fair commences next Tuesday, Oct. 3rd, and continues 8 days. Extensive preparations are being made by the management to have the exhibition this year the grandest in the history of the Association.

The Hickman Circuit Court sentenced two colored men to the penitentiary, one for grand larceny and the other for horse stealing. The trial of young Skaggs, charged with the murder of Bud Hays, resulted in a hung jury.

HOP AT UNION CITY.—Prof. Searey gives a general Hop at Union City, at the Court House, during the Fair, with full string band and programme. Ladies and gentlemen of Hickman invited to attend on Oct. 3rd, at 8 P.M.

We will not be undersold, the Old Reliable.

PLAUT BRO'S. & Co.

Brown Jones' Hair Dresser.

—Some of the families in Hickman are in difficulties over the Fancy New Process Flour of Powell & Bro. This notice is not an advertisement, but is given at the instance of citizens. Inquire for their best brand. Don't buy the 2nd or 3rd grade, expecting this recommendation to apply to them, but buy their first grade.

HICKMAN seems to have waked up to the existence of a base-faced fraud in her midst. The "Order of Mutual Friends" turns out to be, it is said, an organization for the purpose of supporting a set of officers in comparative idleness. So says the Paducah correspondent of the Courier Journal.

Why are they always busy at the Square Deal? Because polite clerks and low prices will attract the crowd. If you want any winter goods of any description, it will pay to call to call. No trouble to show goods.

THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND.—With the cry of "hard times" we hunt for the place where the best goods can be bought for the least money. A visit to the "Square Deal" will convince the most skeptical. A dollar saved is a dollar made.

On last Thursday night expert burglars entered the grocery house of Tyler & Murphy, Fulton, and succeeded in blowing the door of their safe off, but failed to enter the vault. The same night the parties entered the store house of Mr. Bolinger and robbed it of some pistols and other things. The work in Tyler & Murphy's showed the hand of expert cracksmen. No clue to the robbers. The citizens of Fulton offer a reward of about $500 for their capture.

They are selling more goods than any house in town," is the general talk of the street. In fact the Square Deal takes the cake.

Self's circus was wrecked near Lancaster, Ky., Monday last, and three men killed, and a number wounded. A boy who was stealing a ride was one of the killed. The cage containing the tiger was broken and no one had the courage to go near him. Finally the tiger of his own motion walked into his own cage, when the door was closed on him.

The new Hickman, Cairo and Tipperary packet, now being built at New Albany, Indiana, has been named the H. A. Tyler. This is a deserved compliment to one who has contributed the fruits of a successful business life to the building up of the business interest of Hickman and the surrounding country, and should be accepted as a proper compliment to this community. The boat will be completed by the 25th of October, and enter the Hickman trade by the 1st of November.

Capt. W. J. Turner's new boat was launched at New Albany, last Saturday. When Capt. Barhamore gave the word "make ready" Miss Helen Doherty, the handsome and accomplished daughter of Mr. M. Doherty, took her position at the bow of the boat, and as she gazed into the water, she broke the traditional bottle of wine over the bow. The new packet is 102 feet long, 35 feet beam, 5 feet hold, and has a full size cabin, two engines and two boilers.

HICKMAN seems to have waked up to the existence of a base-faced fraud in her midst. The "Order of Mutual Friends" turns out to be, it is said, an organization for the purpose of supporting a set of officers in comparative idleness. So says the Paducah correspondent of the Courier Journal.

Why are they always busy at the Square Deal? Because polite clerks and low prices will attract the crowd. If you want any winter goods of any description, it will pay to call to call. No trouble to show goods.

THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND.—With the cry of "hard times

H.

BUCHANAN,

Has just received the largest stock of New and Fashionable GOODS ever brought to Hickman. A big fall in prices. Ten to Twenty per cent. saved in everything bought at the low price house of H. Buchanan. A full and complete line of elegant DRESS GOODS, LACES, EMBROIDERIES, GLOVES, NECK-WEAR, DRESS TRIMMINGS, and HOSIERY, all new and beautiful, and at 10 to 20 per cent. less than can be found elsewhere. A full line of SATINS, VELVETS, SILKS, &c., at a full discount of from 10 to 20 per cent. A splendid line of Ladies' and Misses' custom-made shoes, in all styles. Every pair warranted to give satisfaction. The most elegant line of Ladies' cloaks, ever brought to Hickman, on which you can save 10 to 20 per cent. by buying from H. Buchanan. All new and of the latest styles. The largest and most elegant line of gentlemen's ready made clothing, overcoats, underwear, in endless variety, all new and substantial goods. We guarantee these goods to be full 10 to 20 per cent less than can be bought elsewhere. I am the maker of low prices in Hickman, and am determined to keep up the reputation. I mean business. Death to high prices. All goods warranted as represented; no deception; no old goods; no auction goods; no bankrupt goods; sold in this house.

H. BUCHANAN.

THE HICKMAN COURIER

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY GEORGE WARREN,
HICKMAN, KENTUCKY.
FRIDAY, : : : SEPT. 29, 1882

Mr. Tilden can still ride Blackstone. Victoria Woodhull is running for President. She will organize her own party and she expects to carry Europe and Canada.

Kellogg, the Louisiana Congressman, is likely to be indicted by the grand jury of his country at its next session for some of his thieving.

President Arthur has been cruising all summer on an ocean steamer. Despatch, which belongs to the United States, patch, which belongs to the President.

The Czar of Russia has gone from St. Petersburg to Moscow to be crowned. While there he may get on a "bomb."

The Paducah Times says the Purchase will present a candidate before the Republican Gubernatorial Convention in the Fulton Fallsom Hall, on Oct. 15.

A Hickman county girl advertised in the Fulton Fallsom Hall, on Oct. 15.

The democrats of the county have obtained the impression that the editor of the Hickman Courier was the Chairman of the Committee, and have indulged in censure because he did not give the convention-democrats the opportunity to send delegates to the Paducah convention to assemble Oct. 1st, to nominate a candidate for Congress; and so we wish to say that he is not and never was a member of the Committee. This being true, of course, he had no authority in the matter.

Galloway County instructs for Judge John R. Grace for congress. The delegates from McCracken and Graves are understood to be for Grace.

The most sickening railroad accident occurred in New York city, last Friday.

One train telescoped another in a tunnel, and plowed its way through a mass of human beings. Many lives lost.

Gov. Blackburn has appointed delegates to the Farmer's convention of the United States which is to meet in St. Louis, to-day, the 29th.

Says the Courier-Journal: There is a very general impression over the State that Hon. George M. Adams and Hon.

John D. White, rival candidates for Congress in the Tenth district, are to each other, but the former denies the allegation and defies the allegator to prove it.

Farmers should take heart. The scene of labor saving machinery has not yet been reached; and it seems that the very elements conspire to save work for the Agriculturalist. Last week away down in Georgia they were harvesting cotton and shucked out every ear in it very neatly. When a cyclone is educated up to the point where it will not only shake the corn, but will haul it up and turn it over, then the farmer and people have cause to brag about the excellence of American inventions."

Combining and Arthur Gossip.

New York, Sept. 28.—Arthur Gossip was here for Washington this afternoon, spent much of his time while here with Steve French and two others of the Stalwarts, who are now running the Folger campaign. Folger himself, who had been sick for four weeks of malaria, is out of bed and on his way to the President in Washington. What is occasioning remark is the fact that Ex-Senator Roscoe Conkling did not call upon or see the Stalwart leaders. Gossip has been here for some time. The Conkling and Arthur are not so chatty as they have been. They have not met since they went on a Sunday fishing excursion to Lexington last spring. What Arthur has done here there is nothing to indicate that Conkling has been here. He has not written in any way, shape or manner, all this newspaper talk to the contrary notwithstanding.

Protecting the Rear.

In one of the public schools of San Francisco, a youth bubbling over with high spirits violated a long-established rule, and was summoned to the bar of judgment. The master said and said he deserved the rods. The teacher remarked, "Have your mother call me tomorrow," the teacher remarked, with a wry and ominous significance. His maternal ancestor appeared on the following day, and, after being duly and publicly informed of the flagrant breach of discipline his son had been guilty of, was requested to see the court and his hands were given to the teacher attend to the matter. She preferred the latter course, and urged that the blows be well laid on. The next day was appointed for the flogging. At the usual hour for such unpleasing visits the youth was summoned to the front. He came with a hang dog look and some trepidation. An omission on youthful frivolities having been duly delivered, his hand beneath an umbrella rug, and his wrists bound in cords with the usual customs in such cases, was spread across the teacher's knees, and the punishment was administered in another quarter than the one originally intended. For some unexplainable reason the most energetic efforts failed to quiet the boy, and consultation of male teachers ensued, and the offender was conducted to a private room, and his wrists released to write a letter of apology. On the interior of the bifurcated garment, the initials of great strategical importance in such an emergency, was a thick flannel baby's frock securely attached.

"Who sowed that?" demanded the principal, in a voice of thunder. "The boy who sowed the boy, with broken ribs. The teachers hurriedly consulted again, instructed the boy never to reveal the circumstance, and sent him in to his studies. Somehow the master looked out.

Man a Laughing Animal.

Man is said to be the only animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

Man is an animal that can cry, and yet he is not really a crying creature. He is a laughing and smiling creature. The hours which bring tears do not come very often. Some broodless nest eggs of twenty years ago have caused weeping. Many hundreds and thousands must weep for sorrow for a quarter of a century. The days on which men cry are few compared with all the days of life.

</div